What is the PRI?

The PRI is a global initiative that encourages institutional investors to integrate environmental, social, and governance (ESG) factors into their investment decision-making processes. Launched in 2006, signatories of the PRI commit to follow six guiding principles to incorporate ESG factors into their investment and business practices.

- Principle 1 Incorporate ESG issues into investment analysis and decision-making processes.
- Principle 2 Be active owners and incorporate ESG issues into our ownership policies and practices.
- Principle 3 Seek appropriate disclosure on ESG issues by the entities in which we invest.
- Principle 4 Promote acceptance and implementation of the Principles within the investment industry.
- Principle 5 Work together to enhance our effectiveness in implementing the Principles.
- Principle 6 Report on our activities and progress towards implementing the Principles.

5337 Signatories

Stewardship

Stewardship is integral to our investment process.

Our Commitment

Since inception, our focus has been on identifying quality companies and achieving investment objectives. A key part of our investment process is to consider material risks and opportunities facing companies and industries including Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) issues.

Our team diligently engages with companies on ESG risks and opportunities, with the aim of strengthening our conviction in portfolio risk management and improving investment outcomes.

2023 Magellan Stewardship Reports
