Portfolio Commentary

The global market continued to appreciate during the month of October in local currency terms by 2.85%, whilst continued appreciation of the Australian dollar (up 1.66% against the US Dollar) slightly reduced the return of the index to 2.46% in Australian dollar terms.

The Fund delivered 4.84% for the month and 9.32% for the 12 months to October, outperforming the benchmark by 2.37% for the month and 5.39% over the year. During the month, the Fund benefitted from significant gains in eBay, Google Inc, US Bancorp, Yum! Brands and Procter & Gamble (returning 22.38%, 16.72%, 11.93%, 8.16% and 6.81% in local currency respectively).

The Fund continues to take advantage of the ongoing appreciation of the AUD by deploying cash and inflows into investee companies at prices below our assessed intrinsic value.
